THE IMMIGRANT'S MISSION BOARD Rev. J. Elmer Bittle, D.D., President

The problem of our country from the point of morals and religion has been said to be "The Immigrant." If this is true it is because the Church either through inability or indifference has failed in her duty and care for the religious needs of them after they have landed upon our shores.

Other agencies not religious have been active and they have looked after his training and the result is that America does have a problem in the immigrant, though it is hardly his fault.

Today there is a strenuous effort being made to correct this in the process of Americanization. But this cannot succeed and reach the desired result. For without the principles of the Christ instilled into the heart and life, and this through a loving contact with that one who has those principles and practices them, there can be no security.

The Lutheran Church has been a heavy loser to the other agencies for many, many of these immigrants have come from Lutheran countries and Lutheran churches in those countries.

We are striving to meet our responsibility in the present work of this board. This agency is now ministering to people in our country in the Slovak, Hungarian, Finnish, Lettish, Windish, Armenian and Italian language. And the results of this service have been good, though so much remains to be done. One can hardly enter into the midst of this service without receiving a sad heart. The opportunity for aid is so great and so little can be accomplished because of lack of funds.

The millions of these unshepherded people are a responsibility for our church and we cannot shift it to others even though they are doing that which we should be doing.

In this great ministry the board must find and educate its own ministry, the only board in the United Lutheran Church which is compelled to do so, in addition to caring for the missions established.

This ministry must be found among the peoples who are now in our country, for the methods of work are so different from the hom land that it is difficult to secure a useful mir ister from the old country who will be ab to efficiently serve here.

The Superintendent of the Slav-Hungaria department is also an itinerant minister, ministering to small colonies of these people scale tered throughout the country, administering the Sacraments and breaking unto them the Bread of eternal Life. These colonies in manifestances are not large enough to form a congregation.

The work among the Finns is being don through the agency of the Suomi Synod, i educating a ministry and supporting the mission work in the United States and Canada Here the Superintendent is likewise an itiner ant minister serving small colonies, baptia ing the children, catechizing the young an administering the Lord's Supper. This habeen very successful during the past biennium.

The work among the Italians is distinctivel an evangelizing one. There are no Lutheran among the millions of these people in ou country. But they are in so many cases er tirely without the Gospel and the appeal them is very strong and they are respondin to the preaching of the Gospel and the congregations organized are meeting with success

We now have five Italian ministers in th United Lutheran Church and there are call for new missions in other large cities of th country. We now have two young men i College studying for the Lutheran ministry t these people. These are the fruit of our mission work among them during the past fer years. A tremendous field, a tremendous of portunity and a small loaf and a very fer fishes with which to do this work.

The Board is doing effective Americanization, for we are placing the religious first, an with the principles of the Christ in the life th institutions of America will be secure.

The appeal from other nationals has bee brought to us, but the Board has not had th funds to carry forward adequately that whic we have already entered and these could not be accepted.

TRIPS TO OUR FOREIGN FIELDS George Drach

Starting from New York city and sailing astward on a great ocean steamship for a nonth, passing through the Mediterranean and Red Seas and the Indian Ocean, you finally teach India. That is where our oldest and argest foreign mission field is to be found. If you wish to locate it on the map find the Bodavery and Kistna rivers in the Madras Presidency. They are our foreign mission ivers in India. The people who live in that part of the country are Telugus. Pronounce his word Telloogoos. Ninety of our foreign missionaries are preaching and teaching the Bospel to the Telugus.

Starting again from New York and sailing icross the Atlantic ocean in a south-easterly lirection until you come almost to the equator on the west coast of Africa, you will reach our second oldest foreign mission field. The teamer will land you at Monrovia, the capial of Liberia, after a voyage of a month. From Monrovia you must take a small boat ip the St. Paul river. Get off near the main station and walk to the Boys' School on one side of the river and the Girls' School on the other side. To reach the inland stations along the river you must walk many weary miles through the jungle or be carried by natives in nammocks. The St. Paul is our foreign mission river in Liberia. The people in the inerior are Koelles.

Starting a third time from New York and sailing southward, passing the West Indies slands and staying aboard ship for fifteen days, you will land at Georgetown, British Guiana. Then take the railroad train to New Amsterdam and visit the 180-year-old congregation in that city, in which our mission is centered. By boat and canoe you may go up the Berbice river and visit the outstations, until you come to the last one, which is 125 miles inland, where we have a congregation of Arawak Indians. The Berbice is our foreign mission river in British Guiana.

Starting a fourth time from New York and sailing across the equator and along the eastern coast of South America for a month, you will reach Buenos Aires, Argentina, where our missionaries have established congregations and schools among Spanish speaking people. This great city is on the La Plata river, another one of our foreign missions rivers.

Now let us start our ocean trip from San Francisco and sail westward across the Pacific ocean in a great steamship. In about three weeks we will land at Kobe, one of the great cities of Japan, in which our missionaries are at work. Then travelling by railroad northward we may go to Tokyo, or southward to the island of Kyushu. In Japan we have no foreign mission rivers but foreign mission islands. Kyushu is the southernmost of the four large islands of Japan. There are a thousand smaller ones. Look for Kyushu on the map, and then locate Kumamoto in the center of this island. That is where the Boys' School is conducted and where the Girls' School is to be established. Perhaps you will remember that on September 1, 1923, a great disaster befell Tokyo and Yokohama, when after several severe earthquake shocks, fire broke out and destroyed many lives and much property. We have a very important work to do for Christ in Tokyo.

We must visit one more country, the greatest country in the world, both in population and in natural resources. We can reach it easily from Japan by crossing the Yellow sea. Jutting out into this sea is the peninsula of Shantung. The Chinese sage, Confucius, was born in a town on this peninsula. The Berlin Missionary Society has been conducting a mission in Shantung for many years, ever since this peninsula was first occupied by Germans. The Japanese took it away from the Germans during the great war and later returned it to the Chinese. All the while the missionaries of the Berlin societies remained at their stations. These stations have queer names, such as Tsimo and Tsingtau. The Berlin society, however, has been unable financially to carry on the work of this mission field, even with such help as the National Lutheran Council was able to give. The society offered to transfer the field to the United Lutheran Church in America and the offer has been accepted. We now have a foreign mission field in China, and it is our sixth foreign mission field. Be sure to look it up on your map.

We hope you have enjoyed these short trips to our foreign mission fields. Someday you may actually make one of these trips as a foreign missionary. At any rate you can always help by gift and by prayer to send the Gospel over these routes, eastward and southward, to the people who live in the darkness and ignorance of heathenism in our foreign fields.

PARISH EDUCATIONAL WORK IN OUR LUTHERAN CHURCH W. L. HUNTON, D.D.

With the organization of the United Lutheran Church, there came into existence a Board which is specially charged with the supervision of all educational work within the congregation. This Board is known as the Parish and Church-School Board.

The Lutheran Church, which originated through an educational movement, has always emphasized the necessity of religious education, and the revival of interest in the education and training of the child for religious knowledge and life has come as no new idea. Indeed, much of the modern development is either consciouly or unconsciously built upon the fundamental principles which originated with the Reformation under Martin Luther, who not only developed the idea of the public school, but also originated the principles of religious education.

The Parish and Church-School Board in its task has therefore simply been called upon to develop in a concrete way that which is essentially and fundamentally Lutheran, namely, a concrete and comprehensive Program of Religious Education.

With this in view, the Board is at the present time providing a complete equipment of Sunday School literature, which includes our Lutheran Graded Series and also a complete series of uniform lessons.

Programs for Week-day instruction, an out line of text books and courses, together with a list of approved text books and the publication of the Junior Class Manual for preconfirmation classes, marks a good beginning in the way of equipment for Week-day in struction.

Training Schools for Church Workers are established under the supervision of this Board in various centers. The Board provides a special diploma for graduates of these schools a well as the teacher's diploma for completion of the Teacher Training Courses. Request habeen made of all the District Synods to provide a Secretary or Director of Religious Education, who will co-operate with the Board and its Secretaries, thus systematizing and or ganizing the educational work into a unit.

A ten-point Sunday School Standard habeen adopted and is urged upon the school with a view to greater efficiency. New official hymnals are in course of preparation; library lists also have been prepared and authorized and a plan for Field Secretaries to develop the work throughout the Church are among the indications that this Board is aggressive and seeks to create a general interest in the congregations in the development of the Religious Education of the child.

The Board issues a magazine known a "The Parish and Church-School" which i intended as a periodical for the discussion o the problems and theories of religious education.

It is also proposed by authority of the Church to develop Lutheran Synodical and Conference Sunday School organizations. Wherever possible in the local communities Lutheran educational institutes are to be established. The purpose of the organizations is to develop within the Church an efficient body capable of developing to the highest degree of efficiency the religious educational forces in our congregations, communities, districts and synods.

In view of this large program and this important and universal task the heartiest cooperation with the officials of the Parish and Church-School Board is vital to a unified program.

Synods, in planning their religious educational work for their Churches, should do so in consultation with this Board. Local pasors and superintendents are encouraged at all times to bring their problems and their needs to the attention of the Board which will assure an open ear to hear and a ready hand to help wherever possible.

LUTHERAN DEACONESS WORK IN AMERICA

Just seventy-five years ago Theodore Fliedner, a Lutheran minister, and four plainlydressed young women from across the sea landed in New York. They came from an obscure village on the Rhine with no thought of seeking wealth or honors here. Theirs was a holy errand, to introduce into the religious life of America a long-neglected agency of the early Christian church, the female diaconate. Guided to Pittsburgh by a warm-hearted Lutheran pastor, Dr. William A. Passavant, upon whose invitation they had come, they met with a cold reception from the American public and even from the church, which had no conception of a life of such entire devotion as was theirs deliberately chosen for Christ's sake. Yet they labored heroically as opportunity offered, one of them, Elizabeth Huppert, rounding out forty-six years of unselfish ministry in a strange land, in addition to fourteen years in her own country. A few young women enlisted in the cause but soon grew weary of the unrequited toil and withdrew. Only one, Louisa Martens, persisted, rendering forty years of fruitful service in the calling.

Similar attempts were made in the period from 1859 to 1872 by pastors of the German Iowa Synod, but without permanent success, and the impression was spread abroad that the young women of America were too ambitious and independent to devote themselves to so humble a calling, or that there was no need of such service in our favored land.

But these pioneers had not lived nor labored in vain. They had sown precious seed and the harvest could not long be delayed.

In 1885 the large German Hospital of Philadelphia, through the influence of the president of its board of trustees, Mr. John D. Lankenau, was placed under Lutheran control and summoned a band of seven deaconesses from Germany to assume charge of its administration. The movement was an immediate suc-The skill and tireless energy of these trained servants of the Lord wrought wonders and have placed this hospital in the front rank of the institutions of mercy in that great city. Mr. Lankenau was delighted and erected at his own expense, at a cost of more than $500,00, a splendid Motherhouse and Home for the Aged on the adjoining ground, providing generously in his will for its permanent support. The hospital now fittingly bears his name and the motherhouse rejoices in the loyal service of ninety-five deaconesses.

The cheering news from Philadelphia was quickly carried through the church, the Norwegians of Brooklyn, N. Y., following suit. In the same year the organization originally formed by Dr. Passavant, transferring its center of operations to Milwaukee, established a complete motherhouse in that city. Minneapolis organized in 1889; Omaha in 1890; Baltimore and Brush, Colorado, in 1895; Chicago in 1897; Fort Wayne in 1922. All but one of these motherhouses have for years been associated in a General Conference, meeting every two years for mutual counsel and encouragement.

The present year has given occasion for two notable gatherings. All but two of the mother-houses were fully represented in an enthusiastic celebration in the Milwaukee Mother-house of he seventy-fifth anniversary of the arrival of Dr. Fliedner and the four Sisters in 1849, and a similar occasion in the Philadelphia Motherhouse, participated in by all the eastern motherhouses, celebrated the coming of the seven deaconesses to Philadelphia in 1884. The spirit of these services was one of profound gratitude to God for His gracious guidance in the past and joyous confidence in the development of this great work in the near future.

Whereas seventy-five years ago the very title "deaconess" was unknown among us, there are now in the United States three hundred and sixty-nine tried workers rejoicing to bear it and honored wherever they are known, for their labors of love. They are doing a great work for Christ and His church, scattering words of kindness and deeds of love all along their pathway. But their numbers are yet utterly inadequate to meet the needs of the day. The motherhouses are all calling for recruits and extending the heartiest of welcomes to every capable and earnest candidate, but this is not sufficient. The prayers of the church are needed, for the cause is hers; the co-operation of the church is needed, for from her ranks must come the workers.

WORKS OF SERVING LOVE IN THE WEST INDIES

CHILDREN'S HOMES

The Queen Louise Homes for Sick and Neglected Babies, originally established by the Danish Missionary Societies under the patronage of the Dowager Queen Louise, have continued their blessed work among the children of the poor and outcast, with the support of the United Lutheran Church in America. These Homes have a capacity of sixty children each. The work is divided into three departments; a sick ward where neglected infants that cannot be received in the Municipal Hospital are nursed back to health; a day nursery where little ones whose mothers must work out are cared for; and the kindergarten. For a period of two years the number of nursing days were calculated to be 29,992.

EBENEZER ORPHANAGE

This Home has been doing a good work much needed in a country where marriage has been lightly esteemed by many of the people. It is also an institution that demands great sacrifice on the part of those in charge. To labor in a Home which contains children who ought to be in an institution for incorrigibles, and others whose mentality is below normal requires the sacrifice of a martyr. The civil authorities are co-operating now in this work and we hope shortly the incorrigible and weakminded will be looked after by the government and leave the Home to carry out its specific task as an orphanage, and also to put into operation a plan for work among young girls similar to the work of the Y. W. C. A in America.

OLD PEOPLE'S HOMES

The local congregations at St. Thomas, Christiansted and Frederiksted maintain what they term "old people's homes." These consist of one room cottages in connection with their mission houses where old women without means or relatives are provided with a home. Although these cannot be likened to our Homes for the Aged in America, they nevertheless fill a great need and these old folks are given a place where they may "keep house" in the way in which they were brought up until the day comes when they leave for that home not made with hands.—From The Isles of the Sea.

THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF Edgar Grim Miller, D.D., Executive Secretary

Early last Spring considerable space was given by the daily press to notices of the death of the oldest horse ever known. He was within two months of 53 years, and from the time he came into public notice and his age was authenticated, two years ago, he was pensioned $25 a month by the Jockey Club of New York. Gifts, too, were received from individuals by his owner for a considerable amount. interest in the horse was so general that Arthur Brisbane commented on the contrast between it and the interest manifested in the old minister, because old ministers who had served over 50 years and were retired without resources were common, while a horse over 50 years old was never heard of before.

The old horse and his master had special interest for us as Lutherans. His master has served the Lutheran Church for 52 years and is on our Pension Roll for exactly the same amount as the horse received from the Jockey Club. The old horse could have been shot when he became useless for service. His master's humanity and love saved him. The master himself must live till the Lord calls him home. The Church must make the years yet his as comfortable as possible. At last the Church begins to realize this obligation, and to meet it the Board of Ministerial Relief has been created and commissioned to see that the obligation is fulfilled.

"How much, then, is an old minister of more value than a horse?" There is no comparison, and yet we of the Church "did not think!" It was not indifference. We simply accepted things as they were without realizing changed conditions. It was not that we "did not care." Ministers and ministers' families looked prosperous. They did not tell their needs or their struggles lest they be misunderstood. When salaries ceased somehow God's promises were fiulfilled and a way was opened, at how much cost to them no one knew, and but few became a public charge, so that the Church did not realize its duty. It was only when the Pension became a part of modern business that Ministerial Pensions began to be considered seriously, and yet already there are in the Endowment Funds of the Protestant Churches of the United States and Canada over $83,000,000 for this purpose, and they are seeking as much more. Last year they distributed over $7,000,000 in Pensions and Relief.

The whole work of the Board and the principle of Pensions are based on services rendered. The Pensions are on the same basis as those of the business world and of the army and navy. They are the Church's method for caring for its Veterans, just as the Nation makes provision for those who served under the Colors. The Church is seeking to "play fair" with its Veterans as the Nation does with those who have served it.

"Of more value than a horse?" We look to the minister for the most worth while things of life; for spiritual instruction and guidance; for counsel and sympathy. We realize that in the Church is the only hope for the maintenance of the ideals which are essential to our civilization and our National welfare; that it must be the power to combat the influences which are seeking to overthrow all that we hold sacred and holy-family, purity, morality, righteousness-and yet, we have been content to give to these men, to whom we commit our children's training, salaries incommensurate with their needs, to say nothing of the importance of the service rendered, giving them a bare living while they serve, with no chance to save for the future. They made no protest and we were content. The move for better things has not come from them, but from laymen who were alive to the necessities and determined to awake the Church to its duty. A better day is dawning and the Board of Ministerial Relief has been commissioned to carry on the work.

Its first and fundamental function is that of providing the regular Pensions for Retired and Disabled Ministers, for Ministers' Widows and Orphans, the latter until the age of sixteen. At present (Sept. 1, 1924) there are on the Roll 168 Retired Ministers, 20 Disabled Ministers, 398 Widows, 1 Disabled Woman Missionary, 3 Ministers' Daughters who took the place of the wife for ten years after their mothers' death, and 82 Children. The annual cost at present is $141,000 and it is supposed to be provided thru the apportionment. The failure of congregations to meet this apportionment resulted in a debt of $20,000 a year ago. Individual contributions, the $5000 given annually by the Woman's Missionary Society and the income from the Small Endowment have enabled the Board to reduce this amount considerably during the past year and still pay the running expenses of the work, but the need is still great.

The second function of the Board is to relieve need, and to this end it solicits gifts at Christmas and thru the year for this particular purpose. For the past two years these gifts have been sufficient to enable it to make grants at Christmas, Easter, in the summer and in the fall to those whose private incomes do not exceed the amount of their pension. These gifts range from $50 to those who are without any income, to $12.50 to those who still come under the rule. It also relieves exceptional cases of need, due to sickness or death, in the rank of the active ministry, if the circumstances commend themselves to the Executive Committee. All gifts from individuals are acknowledged immediately and are reported to the pastors from whose congregations they come, once a year, so that they may be included in the congregation's report of benevolences. Such gifts should be sent to the Executive Secretary, the checks drawn to the order of the Treasurer, and the object for which they are intended indicated.

THE WEST INDIES MISSION BOARD

While the first objective of this Board is the islands of the West Indies, its sphere and influence as well as its labors extend over a much wider territory.

The first work undertaken by the American Lutheran Church in the West Indies was at the time of the Spanish-American War when our missionaries followed the troops to Porto Rico, where for over four hundred years the Roman Catholic Church had held undisputed sway. The progress was slow and costly but after twenty-five years the beautiful churches erected and the growing congregations testify that the work has not been in vain. The most difficult task before the Board is to find missionaries who can use the Spanish language and who are acquainted with the customs and civilization of the Spanish people. It has become necessary to educate native men for this work in order to supply the ministers necessary for this oldest purely Lutheran Spanish work in the world. An erroneous opinion seems to be prevalent in the Church that this work is among colored people. The Spanish work of the West Indies Mission Board is entirely among white people and holds the key to the great problem of the evangelization of the Spanish people of the world. The lack of evangelical literature in Spanish is a serious drawback. The Common Service Book and Hymnal has just been translated into Spanish by the Rev. Dr. Ostrom and has been submitted to the Common Service Committee for publication.

The work in the Virgin Islands was received from the Danish National Church, which turned over to the United Lutheran Church valuable properties and a mission field that had been in existence since 1666. This work is among negroes and on islands that are very poor and frequently devastated by tropical storms. The hurricane this year left two of the islands—St. Thomas and St. John—in utter destitution and the people will require aid in order to exist through the coming year.

In the very beginning of the organization of the West Indies Mission Board, they found a great mass of neglected Lutherans in New York City, most of them located in a neighborhood where four Lutheran chuches have left or are leaving the section. The West Indies Board organized work in 1920 and today after four years of labor has an active congregation of over 450 members with a valuable property and a well organized parish, with a deaconess, various church organizations and everything necessary for a successful congregation. The services of this church are the most liturgical of any in the United Lutheran Church. Candidates for the colored diaconate are being trained at the Mary J. Drexel Motherhouse in Philadelphia, and it is hoped in the near future to have a Motherhouse for Colored Deaconesses

The experience of this Board with work among negroes led to calls from other sections of the United States and efforts are being made at present to establish a station in Charleston, S. C.

THE TREASURER TALKS

Very naturally, the Treasurer of The United Lutheran Church is interested in more than the mere correctness of his accounts. No one can come in contact with the great missionary activities of our Church without being impressed with the splendid work which is being done, the fact that it can only be accomplished by the expenditure of money, that the money must be given by our members and that we are ouly doing a small part of the work that is especially ours. That the spirit to do this work should be in the hearts of our people is evdenced by their membership, but there can be 10 doubt that the better they know the Church and its operations, the more they will love it. One of our first efforts should be to see that every member is intimately acquainted with all that our Church is doing and should do. How can we expect our people to be interested in nission work and to show their interest by iberal contributions toward its support, if they know nothing of what we are doing in foreign fields and in our own country! The vital conact between people of consecrated spirit and all of our missionary activities can only be made when full information and publicity is given. This is accomplished through The Lutheran, our other publications and our every-member canvas, but most of all by the intelligent and sympathetic work of our pastors. They must take our people to the mountaintop of vision and show them the pictures to be seen there, as nearly as possible as they are seen by our Lord, Himself! To the west is our United Lutheran Church with its 1,328,903 members, of whom of whom 918,707 have boldly proclaimed themselves followers of the Master and have sworn to be faithful to Him. It is a wondeful land, full of comfort, pleasure and prosperity, in which very few are without the necessities of life and scarcely any without its luxuries, but all are pledged to the spreading of His Word and to the doing of acts of helpfulness and and love for the needy and afflicted. Toward the east the picture is a very different one. A land of poverty and unhappiness with millions in terrible distress of body and mind, to whom the story of Christ has never been told and never will be unless the message is carried by the United Lutheran Church. How will it meet this great responsibility and opportunity? I am convinced that if our people could see this picture with sufficient clearness, the men and money needed would follow in ever increasing volume. How can the heathen be saved without the preacher and how can the preacher be supported without our contributions; and the number of those led to eternal life must depend entirely on the amount which we contribute to this great work of our Church. From this point of view I wish we would all examine the Budget of our Church and realize how pitifully small it is and how little our people are asked to give and do give to the objects which it covers,-an average of only five cents per week per confirmed member to represent our interest in its mission work, ministerial relief and educational work. With humbleness and reverence of spirit, I suggest that we often pray: "Dear Lord and Saviour, from Whom cometh all the blessings of life, may I never forget the many Thou hast given me. Notwithstanding the high cost of all things, Thou hast provided me liberally with a comfortable home, food, clothing, education for my children and safety of life and possessions. Help me to remember the needs of countless others for whom Thou wilt hold me responsible; and grant that after spending so much of my money for myself, I will give for Thee as many times five cents per week as Thou hast enabled me, in order that missionaries may be sent to those that know Thee not; that churches may built and Thy Word supplied to those that would otherwise be without It. Amen."

-E. CLARENCE MILLER, Treasurer.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The past has been a year of real progress in the work of this important Board. It was able to accomplish a larger work because the Church gave it more generous support. The chief function of this Board is to give annual financial aid, in proportion to need, to the schools of the United Lutheran Church. During the past year these promised amounts have been paid in full, thus enabling all of the schools to do a larger and better work. These twenty-seven schools extend from Kropp in Schleswig-Holstein, Germany, to the Pacific Seminary at Seattle, Washington, and from the two schools in Canada to the three schools in South Carolina. Two-thirds of the Board's income goes to the annual support of these schools. Larger gifts, such as those to Lenoir, by Mr. Daniel Rhyne, of North Carolina, are now being received. A larger attendance, such as that at Wittenberg, with nearly 400 Freshmen, is seen everywhere. Successful endowment and equipment campaigns, such as that of Muhlenberg for $1,000,000, have been successfully conducted by many of our schools. Altogether the progress of our Church schools has made great strides during the past year, the Board of Education coöperating and aiding in it all. A new Women's College will be launched next year, ten Eastern Synods having organized for this purpose. Seven young men are now graduated from Kropp Seminary and are completing their work in U. L. C. Seminaries in this country. The number of candidates for the ministry is steadily increasing, thanks to the efforts of the Recruiting Department of the Board of Education.

The care of Lutheran students in nonchurch institutions is being looked after, all over the country, by the Board's Secretaries for this work. Over 5,000 daughters of the Church, who are away from home at school, are being looked after by the Secretary for Women Students and the many thousands of young men who are at universities and other non-church schools are being cared for by the Secretary for University Students, assisted by local and regional student pastors. This oversight extends from Boston to Los Angeles.

From all of the above it is obvious that the importance of the work of the Board of Education is not surpassed by that of any other Board. Some one has said: "There are two Churches, the Church of the present and the Church of the future." The Board of Education is conserving the latter.

THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION

The Board of Publication does not ask to be placed on the Apportionment, but relies on the generous and whole-hearted support of the Church in carrying on its work. The Board is the chief agency of the Church in the production and distribution of helpful literature. The purpose for which the Board was constituted was in particular to give, by the publication of suitable literature, adequate expression and helpful stimulation to the development, cultivation and diffusion of the faith, polity, practise and spirit of the United Lutheran Church. It is one of the educational agencies of the Church.

The Board appreciates the generous suppor accorded to it in past years. Its work has developed materially during the year just gone and there has been a healthy increase in the business. The net business during the pas year amounted to $651,179.17. Fifteen new books were issued in a combined edition o 72,580 copies, 31 reprinted in a total of 172,300 copies. Five new pamphlets were issued in editions totaling 86,000 copies and 15 pamphlet and tracts were reprinted in a total of 111,500 copies. The new books published comprise a total of 2,823 pages and the reprints, 9,175 pages.

The literature produced by the Board in it service of the Church comprises primarily books, pamphlets and periodicals. Bibles and Testaments are distributed by the Board bu they are really printed and bound by firms that specialize in the production of the Scriptures Next in importance to the Bible come hymi books and Sunday School books. The con tents of these are prepared by specially desig nated committees of theologians and musician who give months of time to a careful selection of forms of worship, hymns and parts o Scripture expressive of devotion, and prope chants and melodies. Then the "service books" are given the Board of Publication for production and distribution. Literatur for the Sunday School and the Weekday and Vacation Bible Schools is edited by men desig nated by the Parish and Church School Board but the mechanical production and the dis tribution is done by the Publication House.

Theological books are of two classes professional and popular. The first are required for teachers and students in school that produce our trained ministry and conserve sound learning. To this group belonalso collections of sermons, books an pamphlets dealing with current religiou questions and methods, and studies in history and doctrine. These the pastors must have in order to keep abreast of their times in caring for the intellectual, moral and spiritual welfar of their flocks. Professional books are often expensive to produce and the demand for their is limited. They would not be attractive to other than a publication house established by the Church for its greater efficiency.

Popular books are written for circulation among the membership of the Church and for general reading. Of these, there is a constantly growing list, of which the authors are talented members of the Lutheran Church. They relate Christian truths and Christian experience in language free from technical theological terms, or they furnish biographies of noted men and women, or they adopt fiction as a means to convey the influences of Christianity.

Tracts and pamphlets are published in order to discuss briefly special activities of the Church and its various boards, or to set forth true versus false views of current questions, or to provide a means of spreading information and appeal for the extension of the kingdom of our Lord.

Periodicals are weekly or less frequent journals, the publication of which has been authorized by the Church or its boards. Among these, we have the Church papers, The Lutheran and Lutherischer Herold, the various Sunday School quarterlies and monthlies, Sunday School papers, Lutheran Young Folks and Lutheran Boys and Girls, and the lesson papers with appropriate stories for the little ones like Sunshine, Sunbeams, Little Ones and Pictureland Weekly.

The four weeklies, The Lutheran, Lutheran Young Folks, Lutheran Boys and Girls, and Lutherischer Herold, had a combined circulation of 175,200 copies. If we add to these the monthlies and quarterlies that were published in weekly parts for distribution each Sunday, we have a total weekly circulation of 339,900 copies. The regular monthlies have a circulation of 39,000 copies and the regular quarterlies, 418,500 copies. The combined circulation of the periodicals was 797,400 copies of each issue and the total number of copies printed of these various periodicals was 19,816,800 copies.

THE CLERICAL REGISTER EDITORIAL NOTE

The Clerical Register contains a number of errors. These are omissions and incorrect addresses. Two synods, one a large one, failed to send in their clerical rolls. This means that the new men received by these synods will hardly be included.

The Clerical Register is made up from the Official Rolls of the district synods. When a roll is checked up and a name on the Register belonging to that roll is no longer found the card is taken out and filed until the name turns up on some other roll or information received as to what has become of the person. In this way only can we keep a clean official register.

If a synod fails to send in its roll, then all changes of address as well as accessions, etc., for this synod will not be noted unless information comes through other authoritative sources.

The editor makes mistakes, he never saw a perfect Clerical Register, the secretaries make mistakes, but the greater percentage of errors are to be attributed to the individual minister himself, both so far as his own synodical roll and the Year Book are concerned, for if every one whose name and address are incorrect in the Register would but spend a minute and a cent, and mail a postal giving name, address and synodical connection, an almost ideal Clerical Register would be the result.

The editor wishes to express his heartfelt thanks for much assistance rendered during his physical ailments.

Forgiveness is much more than pardon. Pardon is not a New Testament word at all; it is only in the Old Testament. Pardon is only the remitting the punishment of sins; forgiveness goes deeper—it is the taking away the memory of sins; it is an act of the heart which cancels both the punishment and the sin itself.

—J. VAUGHAN.

THE GUIDE

This morning, I saw a blind man standing at a crowded street-crossing. He wanted to pass to the other side, but was hindered by an almost unbroken procession of street-cars and automobiles. In one hand he carried a light cane; in the other, a small handbag. I watched this man for a brief moment, and a great pity was in my heart for him and for all those who, with sightless eyes, walk along the rough pathway of life.

He waited, with cheerful patience, until the way seemed clear. He then advanced, cautiously, a step or two, when the noise of an approaching car caused him to hurry back to safety.

Just then a kind-faced man, noting his predicament, took him by the arm and said: "My friend, I will lead you across. I am going that way myself."

Instantly the anxious lines faded from the blind man's face, as, voicing his thanks, he walked, with fearless footsteps, beside his guide.

In some way this lonely traveler, moving along his black, black road, made me think of other, and even more fatal, forms of blindness afflicting the sons of men.

I thought of those who were blinded by prejudice; blinded by selfishness; blinded by worldliness; blinded by the love of money; blinded by anxiety, doubt and fear; blinded by ease and pleasure; blinded by sin—the archdeceiver; and, as I thought of this vast company of people who did not, because they would not, SEE, I stood uncovered while I whispered the prayer of the dying Christ: "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."

And how pleasing and wonderful it is to know that this One, who died for us—and who prayed even as He died—ever stands, as the good, safe Guide, beside the busy, dangerous places, saying, always in love's own soft, sweet accents, to those who stand bewildered there: "Follow me!" "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life!" —Exchange.

THE BETTER PART OF AN EDUCATION

"The educational methods of today are based too much on cramming," said the head of a private school. This has long been the indictment urged by many against the system, but thus far it did not seem to be taken seriously Now Princeton University is pointing the way in the field of higher education, to quit this cramming process and to reduce the number of studies for the student so that he may have chance to master them. But it is in the public schools where this cramming is most in evidence, with the result that pupils get a smattering of a wide range of knowledge but learn nothing with precision and accuracy. Subjects must be made easy, and real mental discipline they do not get. Teachers complain that because of this dissipation of mental energy, it is impossible to get most pupils to take their education seriously and to train them into habits of study that require application and give the needed discipline. This same educator assure us that "educators are beginning to realize tha real education comes from within rather than from without. Quality in education is worth more than quantity. The aim in education should be to develop the mind." This sound well and will be admitted to supply what has been lacking in present-day ambitious scheme to broaden rather than deepen knowledge. Bu one could wish that more stress were laid or the educational value of high ideals. Knowl edge is often made so supreme that culture and character receive scant attention. The best par of a pupil's education is the impress which ; teacher of lofty aims and ideals, and of fine Christian character, stamps upon his pupil through his personality. No amount of text books can give a young man or young woman anything that compares with what a teacher can impart. Education has become so highly technical and mechanical as to lose sight of tha type of education that has even an ethical value

We attribute the success with which our work has met, to the following facts:

I......that we devote our attention to the execution of work for the Church, exclusively.

¶.....that we have facilities and experience acquired since 1877.

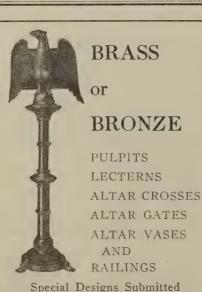

¶.....that we employ no agents, but deal directly with donors or church authorities.

¶.....that we use only selected materials, and employ skilled mechanics specially trained for the work.

m......that we quote but one price; the lowest for which the work can be honestly executed.

m......that the furnishings and decorations are not only designed in our own studios, but are executed in our own workshops under careful personal supervision.

When requesting designs and suggestions kindly give particulars as fully as possible as to article desired, size, style, material, and limit of expenditure.
